Veterinary aid.

65. Mr. Joseph Pettah.— Will the Government be pleased to state.—

(a) whether they have received any representations regarding the urgent necessity of providing additional facilities for veterinary help to the agriculturers of the State ;

(b) have the Government so far formulated any scheme for such additional facilities ;

(c) if so, will they be pleased to give a detailed statement of their scheme ?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—(a) Yes.

(b) and (c). To improve the Veterinary aid in the State Government are contemplating the appointment of touring Veterinary Inspectors as early as possible. The question of opening a few Veterinary sub-hospitals in places which are reported to be in urgent need of them is also under the consideration of the Government.

A scheme has been formulated for veterinary training to be given in the Veterinary school, Trichur, to members of land holders' families. It has been published in the Gazette.

Mr. Joseph Pettah.—How may such Inspectors are proposed to be appointed, may I know?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—That has not been decided.

Mr. Joseph Pettah.—And again in the case of 'sub-hospitals in places which are reported to be in urgent need' may I know from how many places have such reports been received by Government?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—From one or two places we have received reports.
